"He possessed an excellent English education, and was one of the most successful school teachers in Wayne county."

History of Wayne County Ohio by Ben Douglass

Pg 444 "Joseph H. Downing, a native of Belmont county, Ohio, removed with his parents to Wayne county in the autumn of 1826. The following season the family settled upon a farm in Wayne Township, three miles north-east of Wooster, where the subject of this sketch remained with his parents until their deaths in 1838 and 1839."

Page 445 "In 1843 he entered the Canaan Academy, where he profitably devoted two years to the study of Latin, philosophy, mathematics [sic], etc., his determination to take the full collegiate course only being thwarted by a general failure of health."

"In the year 1848 he commenced the study of law, under the care and direction of Hon. Ezra Dean, of Wooster. In 1853 he was elected to the Ohio Legislature, and was a member of the House of Representatives during the session of 1854 -- there being but one session during his term. From the spring of 1854 to 1860 he was engaged in teaching school, and during the latter year he was admitted to the practice of law, by the Supreme Court of the State. In May of that year he opened an office in Wooster and began practice, forming a partnership with Ben Douglass."

"In August, 1862, he was appointed Captain by the Governor of the State, and commissioned to recruit a company under one of the startling calls, for '300,000 more.' In seven days precisely from the date of his commission, his company was full and subject to orders. On the 29th of August, 1862, he took his company to 'Camp Mansfield,' Ohio, and on the 14th of October he was mustered into the United States service, as Captain of Company 'A,' 120th O.V.I."

After the battles of Chickasaw Bayou and Arkansas Post: "As a consequence of exposure and subjection to the malarial influences which decimated regiments, brigades, and divisions of the army in that locality during the winter of 1862-63, he became prostrated and so seriously diseased as to render him wholly unfit for military duty, whereupon, in the spring of 1863 he was honorably discharged from the service. He returned home, wasted and emaciated; a mental and physical wreck; a living, breathing skeleton; with an imperfect recognition of his own family and friends, and by physicians and all who saw him, pronounced a hopelessly prostrated and doomed man." [But he returned to health enough to reenter his profession, although he was bothered by malaria for the rest of his life.]
