Wooster Republican, 29 Oct 1863, pg 3:

___"At Cairo [Alexander County, IL] on the 24th ult., Robert Stitt, of the 120th Regiment, aged 19 years.

This young man was one of four brothers who patriotically entered the army from Franklin township. Three of them have already fallen, leaving a widowed mother to mourn their loss. They were all young men of unblemished Christian character, and have been called to receive the reward of the righteous."
