"Everitt's Trial. For Killing John Burchell - The Case Postponed. Special Dispatch to the Leader. Bryan, O., February 23. - The case of the State of Ohio against William Everitt was called this afternoon, but owing to the failure of the sheriff of Wayne county in returning subpoenas which were sent him, and of which the return day was today, the beginning of the case is postponed till tomorrow. This is a case wherein the grand jury found an indictment against William Everitt, charging him with killing one John Burchell, but his plea will be self defense. Public opinion seems to be in favor of the defendant, who was, at the time of the affray, comparatively a stranger here, and Burchell, though a young man, had gained a bad reputation, and was frequently the subject of remark, the predictions being that he would come to a sad end."

John Burchel was listed in the 1880 Federal census in Village of Bryan, Williams Co OH, living with his parents John and Ellen, Burchel.. He was age 22, a blacksmith, single.

"Bryan, February 24.--In the case of the State of Ohio against William Everitt for the killing of John Burchell, a jury was empanelled this morning, and the witnesses for the defendant from Wayne county having arrived, the case was commenced. Several witnesses, on behalf of the State, have been sworn and testified, and they all agree that Burchell followed Everitt about a square and a-half, nearly to the place where Everitt's team was hitched, and to which evidently, Everitt, with two companions, was going. The state has introduced several witnesses, who all seem to agree that Burchell was the aggressor, following Everitt up, and even some of them say that, after Everitt had been followed up by Burchell, Burchell struck the first blow. One witness, W. O. Willett, swears that he saw the first blow struck, and that Everitt struck the blow with a beer bottle; but several others swear to being nearer than Willett to the scene of the conflict, and saw nothing of a bottle. One Charles Boyers, who was in company with Willett, seems to think that the first of the fracas was a blow from Burchell. The most damaging testimony to the defendant is that of Sheriff Kober upon certain remarks made by the defendant when under arrest, which were called forth by remarks and observation and questions of the sheriff. The sheriff remarked about the knife with which the cutting was done that it seemed almost impossible that a knife of that size could do such a terrible deed, whereupon the prisoner remarked that he cut to kill. This conversation was immediately after his arrest, and Mr. Pratt thinks it is not admissible as testimony. The sheriff also asked him where he got the knife, and he said he borrowed it of his companion to cut tobacco, and then the sheriff asked him why he didn't give the knife back, and the prisoner responded that was his own business. Judge Owen allows this testimony to go to the jury under the exception of Mr. Pratt. There are present about fifty witnesses for the defendant, including those from Wayne county, among whom are Attorney-at-Law McKinnie and other prominent men. It is proving to be an exciting case, and the court room has been crowded all day, some of the ladies of our village being in attendance as spectators. The State is represented by C. W. Pitcairn, prosecuting attorney, Thomas Emery and M. R. Willett, and the defendant by Pratt and Bently."

"Everitt's Trial. Self Defense Pretty Clearly Established. Special Dispatch to the Leader.

Bryan, O., February 26.-- The usual excitement in the Everitt case has continued throughout the day today, but there seems to be a plain case of justifiable homicide, Everitt acting only and entirely in self defense. One attorney of our bar remarked today that if the Supreme intelligence had prepared a case of self defense to fit the laws of the State of Ohio, he could not have done it better than it has been done in this case. Since the resting of the case by the plaintiff, yesterday at 11 o'clock, up to 4 o'clock this afternoon the defendant has examined twenty-two witnesses, and it is indeed a very formidable defense. The defendant rested at 4 o'clock, and the jury was dismissed until 10 o'clock next Monday morning, when it is expected the case will be argued, if it is argued at all. Among the witnesses for the defendant were John W. Leininger, I. R. Dunlap, Asa Cook, John W. Waters and John Griffith, from Wayne county, most of whom had known Everitt all his life, had worked with him at day labor, had served with him three years in the One Hundred and Twentieth Regiment, O. V. I., and they gave him a very excellent character and reputation for peace and good order. Frank Wolford and Charles Everitt, the defendant's brother, who were with the defendant during the evening of the killing, tell the same story, representing Everitt as acting on the defensive all the time.

John W. Smith, who saw Burchell immediately after he was cut, testifies to hearing Burchell say to his associates: 'Boys, I want to give you some advice. Don't drink; don't keep bad company; don't swear; it's my fault; good bye: I'm going to die.'

Frank Tucker testifies to his statements as follows: 'You see the effects of drinking and fighting. I've been a fighting and a drinking man.' "
