Info at Find a Grave, but no stone photo. I was not able to locate any stone for this soldier at Apple Creek.

In the Graves Registrations Thomas Johnson [1841 - 26 Dec 1862] and Silas Johnson, both of Company D 120th, are listed as being buried [or having a stone] in Apple Creek Cemetery. They are both in the same lot and section in graves next to each other.

Not in Pension Index. Not on Headstones Applications lists.

[Family Search member says Luke JOHNSON married Mahalah MERRIMAN on 20 Aug 1829 and they were of Wayne County OH.]

In the Graves Registrations Thomas Johnson [1841 - 26 Dec 1862] and Silas Johnson, both of Company D 120th, are listed as being buried [or having a stone] in Apple Creek Cemetery. They are both in the same lot and section in graves next to each other. I am thinking that they may be brothers, Thomas being listed also in the 1860 census seen above in the section for Silas Johnson.
