Registers of Deaths of Volunteers, 1861-1863: John Parker Campbell, Co E 120th OH Inf, died 3 May 1864, at Regimental Hospital, cause: gun shot wound. [There were a number of men who were at Snaggy Point and the record says that they died at Regimental Hospital. But this is apparently just where the death was recorded, because they actually died at Snaggy Point and were probably buried there or their bodies were lost. This would be why there is not official record of where they were buried.]
