

Company E, 120th Ohio Volunteer Infantry

NEISEWENDER, Elmer 15 Aug 1862 [Note: At the time, the family spelled the name NEISWENDER.]

Private Elmer Nisewender was age 19 when he entered service. He was discharged on 10 Feb 1864 at New Orleans, Louisiana, on a Surgeon's certificate of disability.

There is also a military stone for Elmer. Photo at Find a Grave.

Information from Harry Brunner: Elmer was the brother of Harry's great grandfather, George, who was born in 1861. This family was originally from Switzerland. Wayne County probate records show that Joseph NEISWANTER married Elizabeth JACOBS 19 Apr 1842.. They were Elmer's parents. Elmer's tombstone denotes his service in Company E of the 120th. He is buried at the Neiswender family plot in Plainfield Cemetery, Plainfield, Illinois. He died 11 July 1866 at age 23 yrs, 4 months and 8 days. Elmer's mother, Elizabeth Neiswender, applied for a pension for Elmer's service. Elmer's Great Grandfather, Conrad Neuschwender (Conrad's son Peter, changed the spelling of the surname to Neiswender), was a Corporal during the Revolution. At that time, the family lived in Germantown, Pennsylvania. Thanks for that information, Harry.
