OLD RESIDENT DIES

GEORGE WEBB PASSES AWAY TUESDAY MORNING AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

George Webb, for many years a resident of Wooster, after an illness of about a week's duration died on Tuesday morning at about 9:30 o'clock at his home on Stibbs street.

Mr. Webb, who was aged 67 years, had been confined to the home for some time, on account of a fall a few weeks since, while down town. Last Tuesday he came out of the house to cast his vote, and caught cold. Pleuro-pneumonia set in and it was only a question of time until death would follow.

He was an old soldier having served for several years in the Civil War, and was a religious man. His wife is dead.

[Delphina born 21 Apr 1852; died 23 Apr 1904] Funeral from the late home Wednesday.
