History of Ashland County, Ohio with Illustrations and Biographical Sketches, by George William Hill, M.D: Williams Bros. 1880

Benjamin Myers was born in Perry township, Dec. 21, 1841, and is the son of Jacob and Mary Myers, natives of Pennsylvania. His father was born in Center county, of that State, May 25, 1788, and died in Ashland county, Ohio, Aug. 4, 1857. His mother was born in the same county as his father, and died in Perry township, Ashland county, Sept. 12, 1878. His brothers are Jonathan, George, Jacob and Daniel, all residents of Perry township, except Jacob, who resides in Kansas; his sisters are Margaret, Eliza, Mary, and Catharine, all living in this county, except Mary, who is deceased. Benjamin Myers resided with his father in Perry township until 1860, doing farm work in the summer time and attending district school in the wintertime. In 1861-62 he attended the Vermillion institute at Hayesville, but, in 1862, offered his services in defense of his country, enlisting in company F, One Hundred and Twentieth Ohio volunteer infantry. In July, 1865, he returned home from the war and resumed his studies at the institute. In 1866 he began the study of medicine at Wooster, Ohio, in the office of Drs. Robinson & Weaver. In 1867 he attended upon a course of medical instruction in the Jefferson Medical college of Philadelphia graduating from that college in 1869. In June of the same year he formed a partnership with Dr. J. P. Cowan, and began the practice of medicine at Ashland, Ohio. Nov. 29, 1870, he was united in marriage with Samantha Cowan, his partner's daughter. His children are: Rena M., born Nov. 19, 1871, and Emma C. born Sept. 14, 1873. Mrs. Myers died Nov. 21, 1878. In 1873 Mr. Myers was elected to the Ohio legislature, and re-elected in 1875, serving all four years.
