Pension record for Solon Boydston, Company A, had an affidavit from George Saltzman telling about Solon's illness with sunstroke. It was dated 7 Apr 1885 at Maryville, Nodaway Co, Missouri. See below.

Dear Sir

I think every prisoner ought to have a pension. We suffered every thing. Death would of been exceptiable. They starved us for too or three days at a time and then they would give us some fat meat and beans. We could skim the worms of[f] them and half enough. They took our shoes. Our feet was bleeding. I was so sick with the chronic dir [diarrhea]and had the rheumatism so bad I would give up and lye down. This was when they took us prisoners and marched us on duble quick for too days and never gave us one bite to eat. If we would give out they would come at us with the baynot [bayonet] and swair and curs at us. We had to get or be ????. While we was in prison we ware most naked with out shelter. The sun so hot it curled our hair. They would call us up very often and tell us that they would shot every yankey, shoot one or too and send us back to our quarters. I never called? a doctor or went to the hospital. I thought I would die sure if I went there. If there is a man ever diserved of pension it is me. I wish you would look up my case. I am a year . I hope you will try to get me a pension. I was not at home when your papers came. This is just a ???comesnsoon??? of what I could tell you of my suffering in prison.

Yours respectfully

George W. Saltzman
