The large stone you see in this composite photo is actually for Abraham's parents.

Wayne County Burials book says that Abraham Hershey is buried at Easton Memorial Cemetery, Chippewa Township, Wayne co OH.

It also says Abraham Hershey of Company G [Civil War marker] has a small stone beside Benjamin & Susannah Hershey's stones. [Note: I saw the tall stone for Abraham's parents and the markers for Elizabeth, George and John. But did not find a stone for Abraham. His military flag holder is there.] Possible additional siblings' stones at that cemetery indicate children of B and S Hershey....Elizabeth (died 18 Sept 1845 age 17dys), George F. (died 3 Feb 1842 at age 2 yrs.), and John (died 17 Sep 1844)

Easton, July 25th [Easton is in Chippewa township, Wayne county, OH]

"There is a reaper whose name is Death,
And, with his sickle keen,
He reaps the bearded grain at a breath
And the flowers that grow between."

This skillful and inexorable reaper has invaded this field and cut down both the ripened grain and the young and beautiful flower.

Abram Hershey died at his home, two miles northwest of here, at one o'clock yesterday morning. A few weeks ago he went to a hospital in Columbus to have a tumor removed. By the strain upon his system by the tumor and the surgical operation, he was obliged to take to his bed, from which he did not again rise.

Mr. Hershey was a son of Benjamin Hershey, in his time one of the most prominent citizens of this part of the county. His grandfather was Judge Wellhouse, one of the early and leading settlers in this part. We do not know Mr. Hershey's age, but he was old enough to be a soldier (Co. G, 120th O.V.I.), and, we believe, a prisoner at Camp Ford, Tyler, Texas. [The roster does not indicate that he was captured at Snaggy Point. So he probably was not at the Tyler prison camp.] Upon his return from the war he married Clara, daughter of the late J. F. Sheets. Mr. Hershey was a leading member of the United Brethren organization here and superintendent of Sunday school. His death is a heavy loss to the church. He had acquired considerable property, but a few years ago he became interested in some manufacturing enterprise in Cleveland and was forced to make an assignment. Funeral took place Monday forenoon at the U. B. Church. [In another obituary below this one in the newspaper, it mentions that Mr. Hershey was childless.]

The Commemorative Biographical Record of Wayne County Ohio, (1889) verifies that Abraham Hershey, son of Benjamin and Susannah (Wellhouse) Hershey, was this soldier in Company G 120th OVI. His family was of Swiss descent coming first to Pennsylvania in 1734 and then to Ohio in 1830. Abraham's siblings were George W., Simon B., William O., Mary C, Edward A. and Ella S. Abraham was born 21 November 1842 in Milton Township, Wayne co OH. After the war he returned to farming and was on his Chippewa Township farm since 1866. His wife was Clara E. Sheets, daughter of John F. and Catherine [Schrantz] Sheets of Chippewa Township. Benjamin was a member of the United Brethren Church.

About the Grave Registration Cards in Wayne county:

When I look in the Roster book , I see in Co K 114th that Abraham Harshey, age 19 when he enlisted, had come from Co G 120th and went to the 48th as a Com. Sergeant on 24 July 1865.

There was a mistake in the original grave registration cards in Wayne County. I think that they mixed up Abraham with his father Benjamin because the large stone at the cemetery is for Benjamin. Abraham died 24 or 25 July 1896.

Ohio Obituary Index: Abraham HERSHEY died 25 July 1896 at Chippewa Twp, Wayne Co OH at age 54. He was born in Chippewa Twp, Wayne Co OH.
