This may not be the right person. Can't find any evidence that makes me think this is the right person.

????1870 Census, Vernon, Crawford Co OH, Dwelling 40, Family 38: Jacob BENDER, age 53 Baden, farmer; Catharine, age 53 Baden; Henry, age 27 OH, farmer; Charles, age 23 OH, farm laborer; Anthony, age 21 OH, farm laborer; William, age 19 OH, farm laborer; Elisabeth, age 16 OH; John, age 15 OH; Phillip, age 13 OH; Catharine, age 10 OH. [Jacob died 1897 and Catherine died 1886. Her maiden name was HOFFMAN. Burial at Oakland Cemetery, Crawford Co OH. Charles is not listed there at FindaGrave.]

I think this Charles went to Iowa, but his 1910 Census was not marked for military service. And there is no indication at his tombstone that he was a veteran.
