There is a bio of Henry Smith Moser of Company K is at the following site. It states that he was born in Monroe Twp. Richland county 15 Jan 1823, parents being Henry and Marie E. [Smith] Moser. He married Rebecca Marlow in 1843. It also states that he was severely wounded at Vicksburg. [Note: Actually he was wounded at Chickasaw Bayou on 26, 27 or 28 Dec 1862. Descendant Michael Moser says, "He was seriously wounded and had to make his own way back to his home at Rome, OH, a community that is now known as Shiloh, OH, outside Mansfield. It took him months to make his way back home...he was 42 when he entered the war...the wound is described in a letter from one of the doctors who treated him on his journey...he went back in a year later in the U.S. Veterans Reserve Corp...and again rose to the rank of First Sgt." Two of his sons also served.
