Death Comes, Relieves the Sufferings of George Althouse, Sr., An Old Citizen Succumbs to a Stroke of Apoplexy and His Spirit Takes Its Flight Tuesday Evening

Mr. George W. Althouse, Sr., who suffered a stroke of apoplexy on Sunday at midnight, was unable to revive from the attack, and death claimed him about 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

The deceased was born in Leesport, Berks county, Pennsylvania, March 4, 1826, and was in his sixty-ninth year. He was married in 1849, to the estimable lady who now survives him. The family moved to this city in October, 1865, from Wooster, and have resided here ever since.

Mr. Althouse was a well known and highly respected citizen and was engaged at different times in various business pursuits. He was a member of Canton Post No. 25 G.A.R., and served in the civil war nearly one year. he enlisted in Company H., of the 120th Regiment O.V.I. at Wooster in August 1862. At new Vicksburg during the siege of Vicksburg he suffered a sunstroke which necessitated his resignation and honorable discharge from the service. The deceased was a second lieutenant during the last three months of his service.

Of the five children born to Mr. and Mrs. Althouse three, Miss Mary, George W. Jr., and E.D. Althouse survive their father. The family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their sad bereavement.

The funeral services will be held from the residence of the deceased at No. 91 West Tuscarawas street, on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in Westlawn cemetery.

To Attend the Funeral: Adjutant Kimbal calls a meeting of the Canton Post for the mayor's office in the city hall, Thursday evening, at 7 o'clock, to make arrangements to attend the funeral of the late George Althouse, Sr.
